If being scary is more your style, come join the fun and help us make this years Haunted House, the best ever! The Haunted House Committee consisting of Brothers Heath Kurra, Ed Morse, and Jon Hall, with the help of others, have done an incredible job!

November 1, 2012, we will need to begin disassembling the 1st floor partitions and return them to the upstairs Lodge Room.

November 3rd and 4th, we will continue disassembly and restoration of the downstairs Lodge Room in preparation of our Regular Meeting.

November 8, 2012, we will have our Activities Committee Meeting, starting at 5:30pm.

November 15, 2012, our regular business meeting will be at 6:30PM. There will be a dinner before the meeting at 5:30PM: Please make dinner reservations with our Jr. Warden, Bro Jon Hall.

We will be closing off the upstairs again this year, in an effort to reduce heating costs. Work detail will be announced via email when we have a definite date.

I wish all of you a Happy Thanksgiving! May your travels be safe, your family gatherings be full of wonderful memories and great food!

TRIVIA

When the great Obelisk of Alexandria (Cleopatra's Needle) was moved to New York in 1880 and erected February 22, 1881, there were discovered certain emblems on the original foundation and pedestal. One is clearly a square, causing some to conclude that Masonry existed in ancient Egypt.

This issue is still open to debate, however the true story behind the Obelisk is that in May of 1877 It was secured by judge Elbert E. Farman, the then United States Consul General in Cairo, as a gift from Khedive to the United States for remaining a friendly neutral nation as the European powers of France and Britain, maneuvered to secure political control of the Egyptian Government.
