FROM THE EAST

My Brothers,

The new line of officers have been installed and are eager to get started on another busy year. We will be voting on a new member this month, which means its time to brush up on our degrees. Brattleboro Lodge is very lucky to have a nice mix of new and older members present in our meetings.

Our June 19th monthly meeting will be an important meeting. This will be the last meeting before we go dark for July & August. Officers of the lodge will still meet on first Thursday of the month at 6:30pm in July & August. With the 4th of July parade and other activities happening in these dark months, we will meet as needed to make sure we are ready. The officer's will be meeting on the 5th and 26th for rehearsal of the EA degree. Please make every attempt to make it.

I encourage all Brothers to reach out to non active members and invite them back to see and feel the high energy level filling the rooms of our Great Lodge.

Another reminder is, HELP IS NEEDED for Monday Night Bingo Dinner. This function is helping us to meet our lodge expenses.

On a final note. Congratulations to our Senior Warden, Jeffrey Scott Anderson on his wedding of 5/17. May the years be long and happy.

May God Bless Us All,

Fraternally Yours,

Wor. Jonathan Hall

MASONIC HISTORY

What were the Schaw Statutes?

In 1598 these statutes, or rules and regulations, were enacted in Scotland to cause the craftsmen to observe the ancient usages and to live charitably together. Fines were made enforceable. Obedience to wardens, deacons and masters was enjoined. Cowan's were prevented from working under any master, and other rules and regulations pertaining to craftsmen were made mandatory. In 1599 these statutes were amended at the request of Kilwinning Lodge in an attempt to receive royal recognition. The masters convened at Edinburgh and thirteen articles were adopted. Royal recognition was obtained in part.

What are "The Four Crown Martyrs"

Gould recounts the tale in this fashion: In A.D. 298, during the reign of Diocletian, the Roman Emperor, five Christian stone masons refused to carve a statue of a pagan god. They were put to death and cast into the Tiber. Crowns appeared on the water above where the bodies had sunk. (That's five crowns!) Two years later the Emperor ordered all soldiers to march past and throw incense on the altar of Aesculapius. Four Christian officers refused to obey the order. They were put to death, and later became the martyrs. So we have four of them. Later all nine were honored. In Germany the five became four. In all of the known Gothic Constitutions this legend is mentioned only in the Regius.
