FROM THE EAST

My Brother,

I hope you are enjoying this summer. It is hard to believe that September is upon us. We have been busy throughout the summer planning activities.

On September 1, 2011 and September 8, 2011 we will meet at 6:00PM to finalize plans for the Yellow Ribbon benefit dinner. We are hosting this dinner on September 10, 2011 at 6:00PM. Tickets are $25.00 each and they are available from the officers. We are soliciting donations from local businesses for auctions and raffles. Help us to support our soldiers.

On September 15, 2011 our Regular Business meeting will be at 6:30PM. There will be a dinner at 5:30PM. Please make your reservations with the Junior Warden, Bro. Brent Ledeau.

The Monday night supper club is going well. We are finally getting the hang of it, but we could use some more help so some of us might get a Monday off. Please contact Bro. Phil Bailey if you can help.

Carlos G. Otis Chapter Demolay meets on Wednesdays from 7:00PM to 9:00PM. We just installed new officers for the next term and obligated two new young men. We are optimistic that the Chapter will continue to grow.

On behalf of the Lodge, I would like to thank everyone for their efforts to keep the Light of our Fraternity shining. Every action, large or small, helps to keep us moving ahead.

May God Bless Us All,

Wor Robert Baldauf

TRIVIA

Most Masonic Lodges across the US are chartered as A.F & A.M. (Ancient Free and Accepted Masons) or F. & A.M. (Free and Accepted Masons), but did you know there was a third charter? South Carolina is the only state to be chartered as A.F.M. or Ancient Free Masons. Check out our website in the Resource section under FAQs for more details .
